

Saturday, May 28th marks the third installment of the Little Rock Gaelic Athletic Association's Rumble in The Rock Gaelic Football Tournament. The tournament is a gathering of national level competition of Gaelic Football teams hailing from Austin, Dallas, Kansas City, Northwest Arkansas, St. Louis and Little Rock. Rumble in The Rock III will be the first opportunity each of the squads will square off in 11 a side competition since the 2010 AR-MO Summer Tournament Series.

Little Rock GAA welcomes two new competitors to this year's tournament from Texas, Austin GAA – Celtic Cowboys and Dallas GAA – Fionn Mac Cumhail. Both teams are prepared to challenge veteran Rumble in The Rock teams for their first ever shot at the Shamrock Lawns Cup.

Also new for 2011, there will be a free-entry, hurling Poc Fada (Irish for "long puck") contest for prizes open to tournament players during intermission.

In addition to the intense Gaelic sports action, the O'Donovan School of Irish Dance will perform, showcasing a troop of talented, award winning Irish dance entertainment.

Concession services will be available.
